POLICY ABOUT FINANCIAL ARRANGEMENTS AND INSURANCE

We are committed to providing you with the best possible care. If you have insurance that covers psychological services, we are anxious to help you receive your maximum allowable benefits. In order to achieve these goals, we need your assistance, and your understanding of our payment policy.

Payment is due at the time services are rendered, unless payment arrangements have been approved in advance by our staff. We accept cash and checks. Returned checks and balances older than 30 days may be subject to additional collection fees. A $20.00 service charge will be applied to checks returned. Charges may also be made for broken appointments and appointments cancelled without 24 hours notice.

We will be happy to help you process your insurance claim form for your reimbursement. Any such request must be accompanied by a completed insurance form. Signing the reverse side of this form authorizes The Well – Red Lion Psychology to submit your insurance claim, either by postal service or electronically. Based on your individual insurance benefits, some or all of this cost may have to be billed to you. Once an insurance company denies a claim, the coding cannot be changed in an attempt to receive payment. We are making every effort to comply with the rules and regulations of the government, insurance companies, and claims submission.

Please keep in mind that:

1. Your insurance is a contract between you, your employer, and the insurance company. We are not a party to that contract.
2. Our fees are generally considered to fall within the acceptable range by most insurance companies, and therefore are covered up to the maximum allowance determined by each carrier. This applies only to companies who pay a percentage (such as 50% or 80%) of the "U.C.R.". "U.C.R." is defined as usual, customary, and reasonable by most companies.
3. Not all services are a covered benefit in all contracts. Some insurance companies arbitrarily select certain services they will not cover.
4. Some insurance companies choose to only cover a licensed psychologist. It is your responsibility to check with your insurance company's requirements for reimbursement.

We must emphasize that as providers, our relationship is with you, not your insurance company. While the filing of insurance claims is a courtesy that we extend to our patients, all charges are your responsibility from the date the services are rendered. We realize that temporary financial problems may affect timely payments of your account. If such problems do arise, we encourage you to contact us promptly for assistance in the management of your account.

If you have any questions about the above information please do not hesitate to ask us. We are here to help you.
